

ANALYSIS AND VISUALIZATIONS

(WeRateDogs)

WeRateDogs is a Twitter account of @dog_rates that rates people's dogs with a humorous comment about the dog with ratings almost always having a denominator of 10.

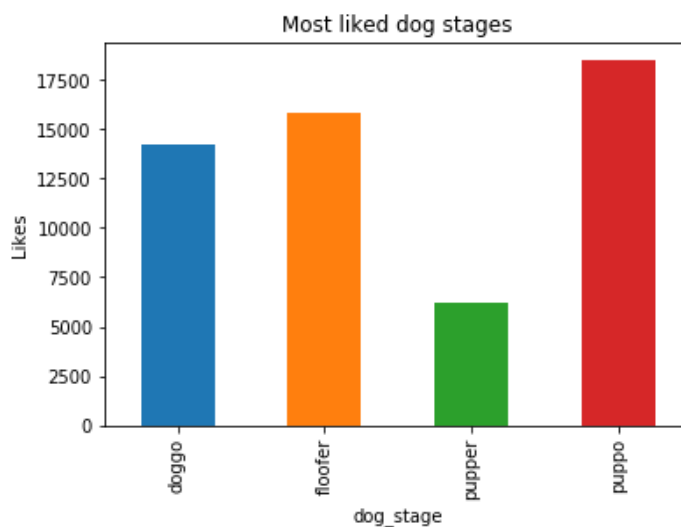

Insights:

1. The most popular dog names

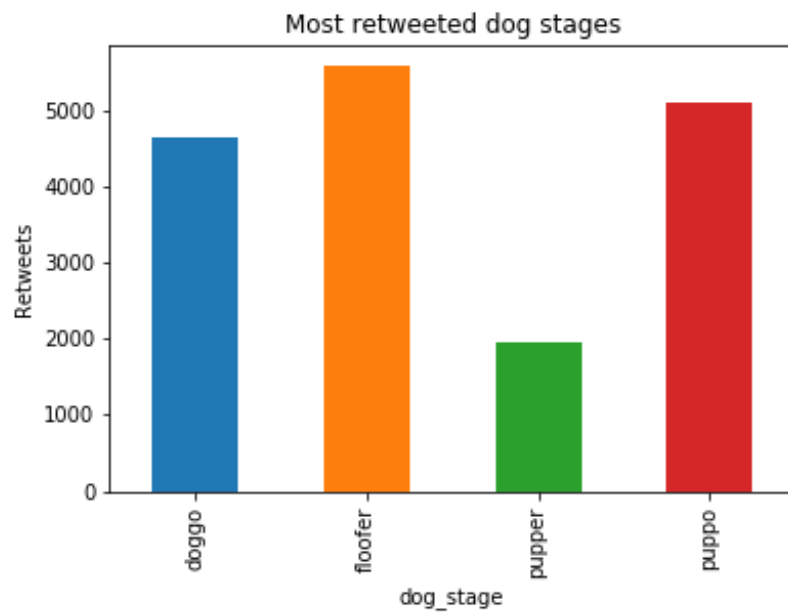

From the graph, it was observed that Charlie and Lucy were the most popular dog names, Oliver and Cooper were all the second most common dog names, and Penny and Tucker were the third most common dog names.

2. The most liked dog stages

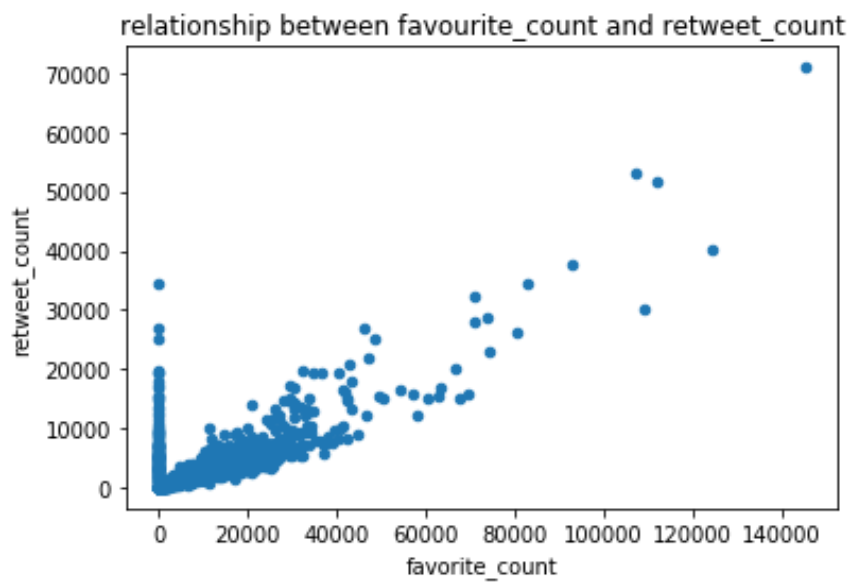

The bar graph shows that puppo was the most liked dog stage

3. The most retweeted dog stages

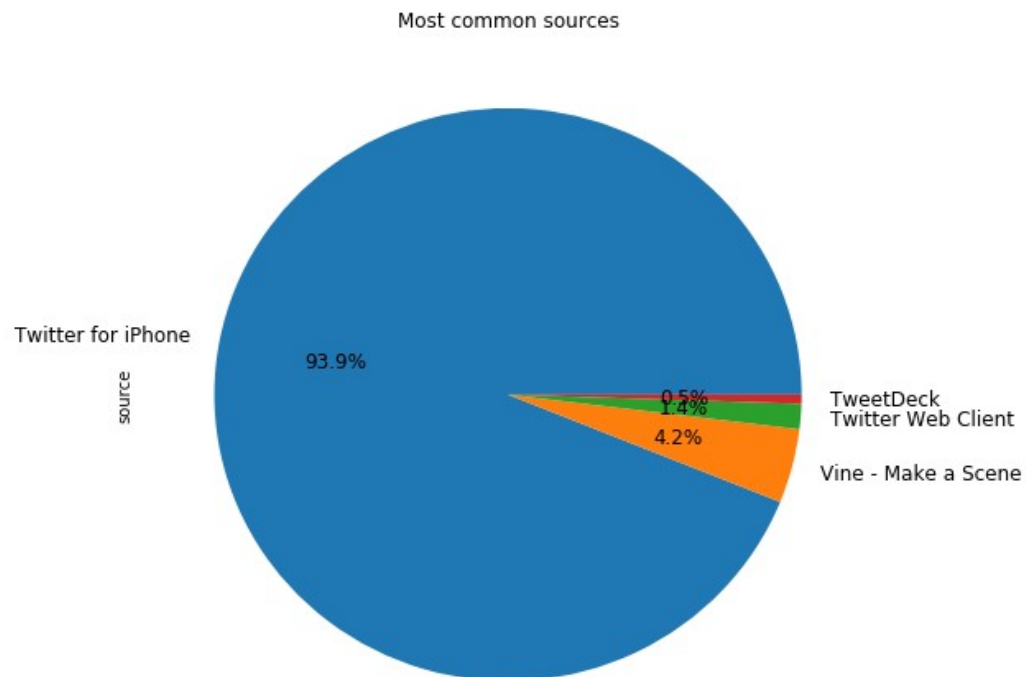

The graph shows that floofer was the most retweeted dog stage

4. The relationship between favourite_count and retweet_count

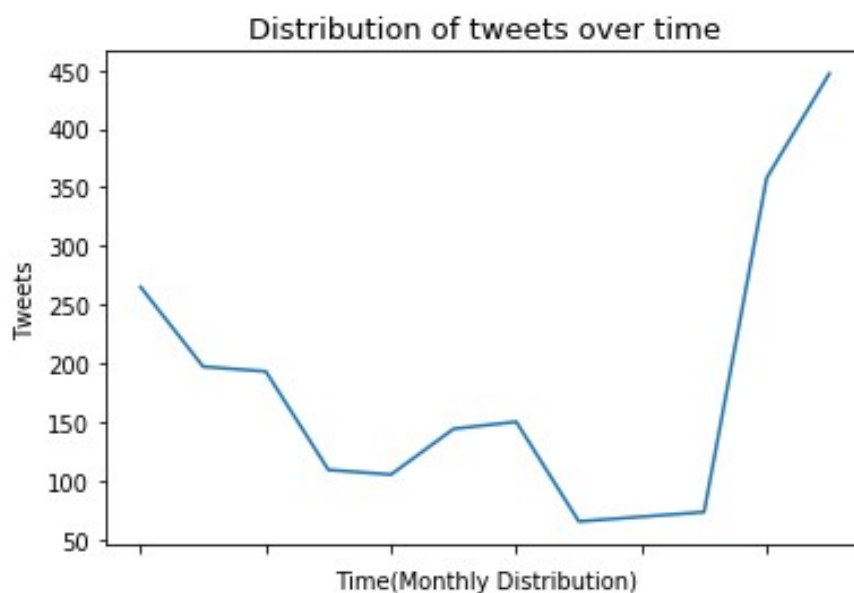

The graph shows that increasing favourite count is directly related to increasing retweet count.

5. The most common source of tweets

The preceding chart shows that the most tweets were tweeted using Twitter for iPhone.

Visualization: The distribution of tweets over time

The line graph shows that the most tweets were tweeted in December followed by November.